*If an I-140 case is denied, Client has the option to appeal to administrative board, file a motion to reopen or to reconsider, or re-file the case. Attorney will review the denial notice and suggest Client the best course of action.

2. NO GUARANTEE OF PETITION APPROVAL: Attorney will work zealously to ensure Client is satisfied with the outcome of the petitions. But Attorney does not guarantee the approval of the I-140 petition.
3. TIMELINE: Attorney will produce the first drafts of all the recommendation letters for Client to review within 10 business days after Client provides all necessary information. Necessary information will include Client's up-to-date CV, as well as information about Client's recommenders and a summary of contributions, according to the instructions provided in the Client Packet. Necessary information may also include Client's publications, a link to Client's Google Scholar profile, etc. Attorney will produce the first draft of the petition letter within 10 business days after Client provides Attorney with all of the signed recommendation letters to be submitted to the USCIS with the petition. Attorney will provide Client with revised drafts of the recommendation letters and the petition letter within 1-3 business days after Client provides Attorney with Client's proposed changes to the same. Attorney will mail the case within 4 business days after receiving all of the supporting materials and outstanding fees for the petition. Attorney shall respond to Client's inquiries promptly. Any unreasonable delay on the part of Attorney constitutes breach of contract and Client has the right to request a refund.

Note – Timeline for relevant 10 and 4 business days for case preparation begins the business day following receiving the necessary documentation from Client.*

By signing this retainer agreement, Client acknowledges this timeline and agrees to it.

4. LEGAL FEE: Client agrees to pay flat FIVE THOUSAND Dollars ($5,000.00) for legal services. $2,500 is due upon the execution of the agreement, and $2,500 is due only if the I-140 is APPROVED. If the case is denied, the remaining attorney fee will be waived, but the first installment of the attorney fee will NOT be refunded.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY: Agreement creates attorney-client confidentiality between Client and Attorney. Information relating to the representation shall be held in confidence by Attorney except to the extent that such disclosure is reasonably necessary to the performance of the service or in the case of dispute between Attorney and Client.
6. OWNERSHIP OF WORK PRODUCT: Client understands that all information relating to this representation, including but not limited to samples, discussion of the case, evaluation results, advice, suggestion and tips to proceed and win the procedure, drafted recommendation letters, and drafted petition letter is attorney work product and the sole property of Attorney at ALL TIMES even after the termination of the representation. Disclosure of the mentioned information without Attorney's consent constitutes breach of the Retainer Agreement and may lead to termination of the representation or/and legal action to recover damages.
7. REQUEST FOR EVIDENCE (RFE) or Notice of Intent to Deny (NOID): If the USCIS makes a request for additional evidence or issues a notice of intent to deny, Attorney shall respond to the RFE or NOID in a timely manner WITHOUT charging an additional attorney's fee. Client shall fully cooperate with Attorney and provide documents related to the RFE/NOID in a timely manner.
8. WITHDRAWAL: If Client withdraws the immigrant petition from the USCIS or withdraws attorney's representation any time after Attorney has submitted the same to the USCIS, Attorney's representation is complete and no refund of attorney fee is available.
9. EARLY TERMINATION: If Client terminates the attorney-client relationship prior to completion of the scope of representation, then Client agrees to pay a reasonable portion of the total attorney fee based on services provided prior to termination.

10. MODIFICATIONS: Any modification of the Agreement must be in writing and signed by Client and Attorney.

11. PRIOR AGREEMENTS: This Agreement incorporates all prior agreements and understandings between Client and Attorney.

12. EFFECTIVE DATE: This Agreement shall become effective upon Attorney's receipt of the first installment attorney fee as listed in Provision 4 above.

13. DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Client and Attorney agree that in the case of dispute, the complaining party should inform the other party with written notification, detailing the description and reasons of complaints. The other party shall respond to such complaint in 30 days. If no resolution is reached, Client and Attorney agree to submit the matter to informal mediation. If after mediation, a resolution has not resulted, Client and Attorney agree to submit the matter to binding arbitration, by and under the rules of the American Arbitration Association.

14. FILING FEES: Client agrees to pay the filing fee for one I-140 petition: $700.00. If Client wishes to file under Premium Processing for an I-140 petition (only applicable to EB1A or EB1B), Client agrees to pay the Premium Processing fee: $1,225. These fees are subject to change by USCIS.

15. MISCELLANEOUS: Please note that the I-140 process is a crucial part of the immigrant visa process, but it is not the only step. As the second step, you will need to adjust your status within the US (Form I-485) or undergo immigrant visa processing abroad. If Client retains Attorney for an I-140 case, Attorney offers two options for the I-485 application: Client can choose to retain Attorney or Attorney will provide a free Do-It-Yourself I-485 packet.

Client acknowledges that client has fully read and understood Agreement. By signing Agreement, Client agrees to the terms and conditions contained in it.
